Allied Gunfire Mow Down Reds In New Attack

Bolshevik Assault Positions, But Are Repulsed With Heavy Losses.

Archangel, Russia, April 2.—(By Associated Press.)—Bolshevik forces again attacked the allied positions along the railway near Odoresha and also made an assault against the line east of Bolshaya Odra Monday, but at both places were repulsed.

Along the railway front the enemy struck from the night tank but was met by such a fierce fire from machine guns and artillery that he speedily retired with heavy losses.

Free Cuts Wire Line.

In the attack near Bolshaya Odra the Bolsheviks succeeded for a short time in cutting telegraph communication to the allied outposts along the front, but were later driven off.

The enemy apparently is striving to cut off the allied line of supply, which is badly approaching and makes roads impassable and compels the allies to move from Bolshaya Odra, which is a long way from the Bolshevik base, with which it is connected only by a road virtually useless in the spring.
